M. B. LOYD,
President First National Bank.
S. M. FRY, Merchant.
J. P. WALLER, Merchant.
HOWARD TULLY, Jeweler.
Fort Worth, Tex., April 5, 1887.

Lucky Numbers.
When the gentlemen who had kindly consented to superintend THE GAZETTE's second semi-annual distribution of premiums came in with the completed list it was found by comparing the list with the record of tickets issued, that the W. A. Huffman buggy would go to Heidenheimer, the Sterling organ to Holland, the Bird windmill to Springtown, the J. B. Mitchell wagon to Cottontale, the Ellis & Kellner saddle to Sipe Springs, the Singer sewing machine to Gainesville, and the Charter Oak cooking stove to Holland.
Among the more valuable book premiums Thackeray's Complete Works was awarded to a subscriber at Belle Plaine; Scott's Complete Works to a reader at Sulphur Springs; Cooper's Works, complete, to a Sipe Springs patron; and Dickens's Works to a Californian at Los Angeles.
A Fort Worth man got the case of Wright-Carter crackers; and the case of Silurian Waukesha water, instead of going west where water is most demanded, was awarded to a subscriber at Cellin in Colima county.

FORT WORTH MARKETS—DAILY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE GAZETTE, FORT WORTH, TEX., April 12, 1887.
Trade was a good average to-day. Meats are up in some cases, jumping of a cent per pound.

There is a better supply of country butter, but prices have suffered no decline. The new crop cabbage now in market is pronounced very fine.

TEXAS COTTON.

The weather during March was favorable, but pretty much all our letters indicate the need of rain. In Southern and Central Texas planting was beginning to be general, but in the northern counties it was not expected to commence before the 10th of April or later. As usual, this state will show an increase of cotton acreage, but it is still too early to determine how much. Food crops are also being more cultivated, and the general condition of farmers shows an improvement.

Erath county—Season very good. Planting will become general about 15th of April.

Navarro county—There will likely be an increase of acreage as usual, but too early to say positively. Hardly any cotton planted yet.

Kaufman county—Favorable. Dallas county—Rather too dry. Planting becoming general.

Grayson county—Good, but rain badly needed.

Lamar county—Season very fine. Nacogdoches county—Unfavorable. Planting will be general about April 10.

VanZant county—Extra good, but little cotton planted yet.

Washington county—Finished planting. Tarrant county—Season fair, but only small acreage planted yet.

Travis county—Season good so far, but wanting rain now. Planting is pretty general; some cotton up, but rain would help a good deal.

Falls county—Cotton acreage about the same. Some cotton planted last week.

DeWitt county—Good, but needing rain. Planting is general.—[New Orleans Cotton World.]
